PROCEEDINGS OF THE PRE-BID MEETING HELD ON 02.08.2024

4. The COSP, BMTC has requested the bidders to express their queries about the Pre-qualification criteria, evaluation criteria and other terms and conditions of the tender documents.

5. Sri.Vijay Sabal , Representative of M/s.Ceat Ltd has informed the committee that:

    a. There is no objection for pre-qualification, evaluation criteria & other terms & conditions. But the payment clause has to be revised, as per the tenders of NWKRTC/KSRTC i.e., 100% advance payment with 2% of invoice value PPD (prompt payment discount).
    b. The CPKM details of the all available manufactures should be included in the tender documents so that they can quote the rates accordingly.
    c. Earlier, two tenders were cancelled without assigning any reasons, as participation in tenders/providing Bank guarantee, involves huge cost. Hence, requested not to cancel the tenders.

6. The COSP informed the representative of M/s CEAT Ltd that,
    a. Payment clause cannot be changed at this juncture as requested by prospective bidders and existing payment clause remains same for this tender.
    b. Providing of CPKM details may be considered for incorporation in the future tenders, after taking into consideration of all the pros & cons of the decision.
    c. The previous purchase orders/tenders were cancelled based on the orders of Appellate Authority.

7. Sri.Vidya Sagar, representative of M/s.JK tyre & Industries has informed that 15 days payment terms mentioned in the tender is not honoured by the BMTC and every time payment will be made after two months or 3 months from the date of supplies.

8. The COSP, BMTC informed the representatives of all firms that henceforth the payment terms will be followed as per the payment clause of tender.

9. Sri.Atul kumar, representative of M/s. Michelin has informed that the previous claims
